Rest in the Storm.

WEATHER REPORT

God never promised to keep you from the storms,
but He promises to be with you through them.

WEATHER REPORT

Mark 4:35-41

As evening came, Jesus said to his disciples, “Let’s cross to the other side of the lake.” So they took Jesus in the boat and started out, leaving the crowds behind (although other boats followed). But soon a fierce storm came up. High waves were breaking into the boat, and it began to fill with water.

Jesus was sleeping at the back of the boat with his head on a cushion. The disciples woke him up, shouting, “Teacher, don’t you care that we’re going to drown?”

WEATHER REPORT

When Jesus woke up, he rebuked the wind and said to the waves, “Silence! Be still!” Suddenly the wind stopped, and there was a great calm. Then he asked them, “Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?”

Mark 4:39-41

When Jesus woke up, he rebuked the wind and said to the waves, “Silence! Be still!” Suddenly the wind stopped, and there was a great calm. Then he asked them, “Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?”

WEATHER REPORT

A dramatic landscape featuring a dark, stormy sky with heavy, dark clouds. Below the sky, a body of water, possibly a lake or a wide river, stretches across the middle ground. The water is calm, reflecting the dark tones of the sky. In the foreground, there are rolling hills or mountains covered in green grass, leading down towards the water. The overall mood is somber and powerful, suggesting an approaching storm or a moment of intense natural beauty.

The disciples were absolutely terrified. “Who is this man?” they asked each other. “Even the wind and waves obey him!”

Matthew 14:22-33

“Immediately after this, Jesus insisted that his disciples get back into the boat and cross to the other side of the lake, while he sent the people home. After sending them home, he went up into the hills by himself to pray. Night fell while he was there alone.

WEATHER REPORT

Meanwhile, the disciples were in trouble far away from land, for a strong wind had risen, and they were fighting heavy waves. About three o'clock in the morning Jesus came toward them, walking on the water. When the disciples saw him walking on the water, they were terrified. In their fear, they cried out, "It's a ghost!"

Then Peter called to him, “Lord, if it’s really you, tell me to come to you, walking on the water.”

“Yes, come,” Jesus said.
