GENEROUS WORSHIP

“The most important commandment is this: ‘Hear O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one. Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.’”

- Jesus (Mark 12:29-30)

A few years ago, I read an incredibly gripping novel of a Detective who was given the case to find a criminal that, he was sure, had escaped him and murdered his mentor years earlier. Normally I just read novels before I go to bed each night, but while I was reading this book, every waking moment, before supper, while the kids were playing, anytime I was off work, I had to find out what would happen next! At the end of the book, totally out of the blue, the author wrote how after this emotional roller coaster of a few days, the detective went back home to his family, kissed his wife, and she asked him, “so how was your week?”

There was no mention of his family for the entire novel. Zero. Nada. Zilch. The reader was led to believe this was a typical story of some bachelor detective bent on revenge. The ending blew my mind. When the Detective’s life was in danger, his wife was at home doing dishes. When his boss was yelling at him, his kid was playing in the backyard. They had no idea what he had been doing all week.

When you are at work, home, and play, do people know you’re a Christian or are you a sleeper agent? Do they see in your life someone who has been changed by God? Do your co-workers see someone who gives their best because you understand work as worship? Does your family see you as someone fully committed to Christ? Does the time you spend with friends and the way you talk, the way you act, the way you engage with others show a reflection of Jesus?

During the first sermon series of Fall, we will be looking at what it means to live a life of worship. How we work, how we serve, how we use money - our entire lives are all acts of worship that show we have been transformed in all of our heart, soul, mind, and strength.

In Generous Worship, we give all of ourselves to all of God.

thanksgiving sunday october 8

Every year, Ellerslie receives a special offering for Thanksgiving, which is distributed evenly between two organizations - one local and one global. Our desire is to show God's love in a real and tangible way through giving towards relief projects.

The organizations and projects we will support this year have yet to be confirmed. Stay tuned for further details in the coming weeks!

Donations for the offering will be received until October 31st.

Laura Russell

Laura Russell is a home-grown missionary who was born and raised here at Ellerslie. In 2003, God led her to Argentina where she is serving with the Baptist General Conference of Canada (BGCC). She currently lives in Tucumán City in the Northwest region of Argentina, which has a population of approximately one million people.

Over the years Laura has been involved in many different ministry areas, however they are usually ones that focus on teaching and discipleship. She has always been active in the local church and since 2014 she has been attending Peniel Church, a twelve-year old Baptist Church. She is part of the pastoral team where she trains teachers, small group facilitators, and worship leaders as well as pastoral counselling.

From 2014 to 2021 she was on staff with ABUA (University Bible Association of Argentina), a sister group to Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship. Through this campus movement, she worked with university students across Argentina, training them to think missionally about using their vocation for Kingdom service.

And since 2017, Laura has been a professor at a Bible Institute in Tucumán. This school is designed to give theological education and training to those already serving in local congregations. Earlier this year she taught “Introduction to the Bible” and next year is slated to teach courses on the Gospels, Acts, and the Pauline Epistles.

Please pray for...

- safe travels and meaningful connections in the coming months as she visits BGCC churches across Canada while she is on home assignment.
- God to provide new financial partners, as she seeks to raise more monthly support
- times of rest in this busy season and for clear vision as she returns to Argentina in the new year.

For more information about Laura’s ministry or to become a financial supporter, contact laura@bgc.ca or BGC Canada directly at office@bgc.ca.
